

99 Kimihia Road Huntly NZ

3  1  1

This solid 1950s home has been tastefully updated to meet the needs of today's families while retaining the strength and character of its original build. Set in an elevated, well-regarded part of town and within the sought-after Kimihia School zone, this property offers comfort, functionality, and with all the work complete, a restful lifestyle.

Inside, you'll love the fresh interior, brand new kitchen, and modern bathroom, all complemented by recently renewed carpet. The layout is both practical and inviting, with three bedrooms, a separate extended lounge with a conservatory that attracts maximum light. A sun-filled dining space flows seamlessly out to a large deck spanning the entire length of the house - great for entertaining or just enjoying the view.
